

International plushie status

“IPS”

Generally valid for any type of stuffed animal community

1. Plushies First - The dignity of the plushie is untouchable!
2. There should never be less than two plushies in a shared flat, because company is important!

Plushies kept alone have to be cuddled a lot because they don't have any fluffy cuddle partners.
3. A plushie needs cuddles and attention every day.
If attention cannot be guaranteed for several days, short-term compensation should be provided in the form of biscuits or similar delicious treats.
4. Each plushie basically has the authority to make decisions about its plush.
Everyone has the right to freely develop their plushness as long as they do not violate the rights of others.
5. Every plushie has the right to non-violence and physical integrity.
These rights may only be infringed upon in the event of a plush defect emergency.
6. An adopted plushie may only be given up for adoption by its human again in extreme emergencies! Ideally, the connection lasts forever.
7. Plushies may not be sold or held in captivity in wire baskets.
8. Plushies are entitled to financial autonomy; to justify and maintain each plushie, access to a credit card from the cookie giver is to be made available.
9. Anyone who puts a plushie in a helpless situation or lets them down in a helpless situation, although he is obliged to help and care, the plushie then has the free choice of whether to stay with the person or be adopted by another person. A stuffed animal is only considered helpless when it is no longer able to protect itself from dangers to life or qualified bodily harm or to avert these from itself.
10. Man has to create his own place of retreat for his stuffed animal.
Small apartments in cupboards have proven their worth.
11. Plushies are only very rarely to be washed, in unavoidable exceptional cases!
12. Plushies may only be put in the washing machine in extreme and absolute emergencies!
13. Each Plushie is to provide support in the care of plush, to maintain the fluffiness!

14. Plushies should only do sport occasionally, otherwise there will be plush knots.
However, physical training in a sport of their choice is to be made possible for them!
15. Plushies are regular trips to the ice cream parlor, to the zoo, to museums, to the sea or other trips, depending on the plushie's taste, interests and mood.
The plush is automatically responsible for the tour guide. If this is not the case, this will automatically come into effect. After all, who knows better when you need a break for fluff, cocoa and biscuits than a plushie?
16. Plushies come before humans when it comes to feeding.
If there is not enough food for humans and plushies, humans give those prefers biscuit amine containing food to the plushie.
17. It is to serve warm pudding daily!
As an exception, equally delicious treats containing biscuit amine can also be served as a substitute.
18. The plushies determine the ranking in the plush pack among themselves.
19. Don't forget to hüpf!
20. In places where you can't jump, you have to dance!
21. If the person is late or otherwise does not have time for their plushies, they are obliged to have two different snacks bring with you (pay attention to the biscuit amine content)
22. Plushies have a right to participate in the lives of their people. To this end, they may ther People Accompany you everywhere.
23. Plushies must never be transported in dark bags, boxes, etc. without a sufficient supply of biscuit sticks!
24. When traveling, plushies must always be transported in hand luggage or in luggage specially provided for this purpose. Furthermore, a sufficient, adequate supply of biscuit amine must be ensured when traveling.
25. Plushies are to be granted access to mobile phones and the Internet in order to maintain contact with plushies who are friends!
26. The biscuit giver has to do paperwork as plushie secretary.
27. The mobility of the plushie must be guaranteed.

Ideally by specially purchased for the plushie Drive-, Flight- or flotation-devices in adaptedSize.
28. Plushies are not subject to any work obligations.
29. Plushes are entitled to a free health check once a year.
30. Plushies must be allowed to meet friends.

31. Plushies must be equipped with a helmet and other safety clothing or rescue harnesses if they are taken on two-wheelers or during similarly dangerous activities!
32. CHEEEEEEEEEEEEESE
33. Plushies have the right to freedom of expression in image, sound and writing. Examples include Twitter, Mastodon, Instagram and Plushy Living.
34. Should a stuffed animal travel to a friend, nationally or internationally, the shortest and fastest route must always be ensured in advance. In addition, it is always important to ensure that there are enough provisions for the trip, adapted to the duration of the trip.
35. This is the world of plushies, humans only live in it.
36. Plushies' requests are immediate, i.e. without culpability hesitation and without further communication.
37. Plushies are free to choose their whereabouts or place of residence. Ideally, of course, in the immediate vicinity of your cuddly human.
38. Post of a plushie must be given by the respective cookie giver or accept to injury or loss of the plushie by e.g. falling into a post box.
- 39.
- 40.
- 41.
42. Plushies are the answer to the ultimate question about life, the universe and everything!